Dear Mike,

Thanks so much for your grand hospitality while in Washington last week to tape a segment for Business Breaks. When I walked in people were poised to help me out, and I really appreciated that. I was able to do a phone and Internet link for a national phone conference with about a dozen colleagues from around the country. We were discussing issues that relate to the management of institutionally related foundations in preparation for a national conference in April.

I also appreciate the promptness with which you were able to work me into your schedule. Increasingly we are finding people attracted to gift annuities because of their relatively high payout and their simplicity. Thanks for letting us share that concept with your viewers.

I have had three people stop by or call to say they saw the spot this morning. Let's hope someone wants information.

Best wishes for a grand holiday season.

Sincerely,

James L. Lanier

February 18, 2003

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for your donation to the 2002 Cherry Point Reserve Support Unit Toys For Tots Campaign.

With your support, 42,701 toys were collected and distributed to the children of Beaufort, Bertie, Carteret, Craven, Edgecombe, Halifax, Hertford, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pitt, Tyrell and Washington counties. The Marines, community volunteers and local business' collective efforts resulted in 20,129 children receiving toys.

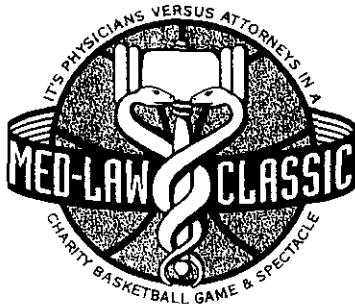

Your contribution to ensure a brighter Christmas for deserving children and your support of the Marine Corps community outreach is commendable. You should be proud to know that your donation had a positive impact on the lives of others.

Thank you again for helping us to make this years campaign another success.

With warm regards,

Dear Mike,

Thank you very much for your great promotional support of the 11th Annual Med-Law Classic. As you know, the Med-Law Classic is the signature event that identifies the fundraising efforts of the Pitt County Health Education Foundation (PCHEF). This year, we were able to meet our goal of $100,000. This summer these funds will be awarded as grants to projects here in Pitt County that address issues of health and health education.

The basketball challenge between the physicians and the lawyers has grown over the past 11 years into one of the most successful fundraising events in Pitt County. We thank you for continuing to support us in so many ways: production and airing of the PSA (Robert Bonner outdid himself this year and created a very memorable PSA!), morning shoot-outs with Jim Howard, Business Break, appearance on the 5:00 p.m. news, Billy Weaver and Amanda Ross joining us at the game for the shoot-out, the Sumo Wrestler suits. . The list goes on and on! We value our partnership with WITN and look forward to a great ongoing relationship as we continue to address Pitt County's many community health needs. As you know, the welfare and prosperity of our community depends on the health of its children and families.

Your continued support is truly appreciated. We hope you will join us again next year as we strive to make the 12th Annual Med-Law Classic even bigger and better.

Dear Mike:

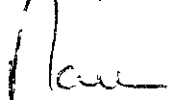

On behalf of the Beaufort Business Association, I would like to thank you and your team for all you did to help us promote the 15th Annual Beaufort Music Festival. Your coverage was outstanding and having WITN-7 on board really made a difference.

I very much enjoyed my two interviews with Linda Shore. She makes it all so easy and is so comfortable to talk with that there is never a thought of being nervous. I certainly appreciated the opportunity to talk about our festival on two different occasions and I know her interviews helped us get the word out. Thanks to your coverage, the town was packed for the POCO concert on Saturday. Unfortunately, the downpour on Friday night kept the crowd down and the Drifters didn't have such a big turnout (but what a show they put on in the NC Maritime Museum .I hope you had a chance to see it!!)

Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to MC the activities on Saturday. You did a great job and we really appreciate all the promoting you did for our sponsors. Thank Patrick and Doug for their help also.

It was great having you all here and we all very much appreciate having WITN-7 as a Sponsor for the 2003 Beaufort Music Festival.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Weeks,

On behalf of the Museum of the Albemarle, I would like to thank you for the opportunity you gave for the museum and the other Historic Albemarle Tour sites to appear on your station. The Historic Albemarle Tour plays a huge role in the tourism industry of North Carolina and the Museum of the Albemarle is proud to be a part of the organization.

As one of only two North Carolina stations in Elizabeth City, WITN-TV is valued very much and we appreciate the opportunity to appear. ## NC CAN Program Launched to Recover Abducted Children

SANFORD--Three hours is enough time to enjoy your favorite sporting event or catch a movie. It is also enough time to kidnap and murder a small child.

According to national research from the state of Washington, seventy-five percent of the children who were abducted and killed at the hands of strangers were dead within three hours of being kidnapped.

In an effort to capitalize on this small window of opportunity, ~~WWGP-AM/WWJA-FM~~ radio, law enforcement agencies in a four county area, and the N.C. Center for Missing Persons today announced the creation of the NC Child Alert Notification System.

The North Carolina Child Alert Notification (NC CAN) System is the brainchild of the North Carolina Center for Missing Persons, and was developed in conjunction with Chatham, Moore, Harnett and Lee county law enforcement agencies and radio station WWGP-AM /WFJA-FM in Sanford.

"Our goal was to develop a simple yet effective system for law enforcement to immediately broadcast information to the public about an abducted child" said Billy Ray Cameron, deputy secretary of the N.C. Department of Crime Control & Public Safety (CC&PS). The N.C. Center for Missing Persons is a division within CC&PS.

A similar program in the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas area has already been credited with the safe return of an abducted four year old girl.

The NC CAN system is similar to the emergency broadcast system, used to alert people during adverse weather. It works when local police or sheriff departments fax information to the radio station concerning an abducted child. The radio station then interrupts their program with an alert tone developed by an engineer at the Sanford radio station, and broadcasts specific information about the child and possible abductor.

"The cooperation of local law enforcement agencies has been tremendous," said John Goad, director of the N.C. Center for Missing Persons. "Hopefully, we will be able to take this program statewide."

Agencies participating in the four county pilot program include: Chatham County Sheriff's Office; Harnett County Sheriff's Office; Lee County Sheriff's Office; Moore County Sheriff's Office; Angier PD; Lillington PD; Dunn PD; Broadway PD; Sanford PD; Pittsboro PD; Siler City PD; Erwin PD; Aberdeen PD; Carthage PD; Coats PD; Foxfire Village PD; Pine Bluff PD; Pinhurst PD; Robbins PD; Southern Pines PD; Taylortown PD; Vass PD; and, Wispering Pines PD.

Warning signal could rescue abducted child

SANFORD — A program aimed at recovering abducted children has been implemented in the Central Carolina area — the first region of the state to get it.

The North Carolina Child Alert Notification System was developed by law enforcement officials in Chatham, Moore, Harnett and Lee counties, two Sanford radio stations and the North Carolina Center for Missing Persons.

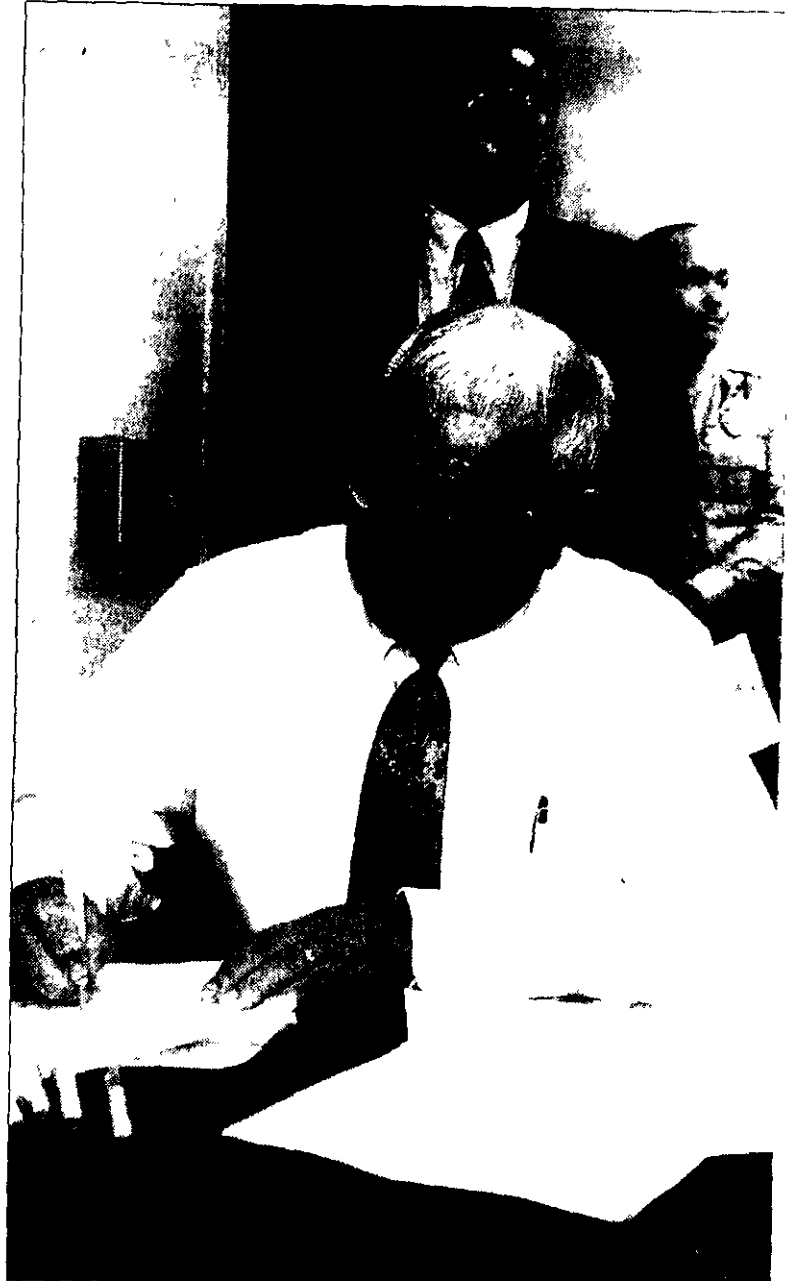

Representatives of law enforcement agencies from the four counties attended the (NC CAN) signing agreement on Monday.

"The NC CAN system is similar to the emergency broadcast system," said Billy Ray Cameron of Sanford, deputy secretary of the state Department of Crime Control and Public Safety. "It works when local police or sheriff departments fax information to the radio station concerning an abducted child."

The radio station then interrupts their programming with an alert tone, similar to that for advisory weather reports, and broadcasts specific information about the child and possible abductor. "The program will be able to bring into light the first three hours, which are the most critical," Cameron said.

A Washington state study showed 75 percent of the children abducted and killed by strangers were dead within three hours of being kidnapped.

According to Cameron, a similar program in the Dallas-Forth Worth area has been credited with the safe return of an abducted 4-year-old girl.

The two Sanford radio stations involved in the program are WWGP-AM and WFJA-FM. The North Carolina Center for Missing Persons is also part of the program.

"We are pleased to be a part of the program," says Richard Feindel, owner of the radio stations. "It is sad in life that we have to have this program, but we are going to try to do our best to help."

Cameron and Feindel hope the program will become statewide.

Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — A program to help locate abducted children that got its start in Sanford is beginning to spread across the state.

The North Carolina Child Alert Notification system (NC-CAN) is a program designed to help locate children as soon after the abduction as possible.

Once an abduction has been verified, an announcement goes on the air, either by TV or radio, alerting listeners. Information includes the child's name or nickname, age, a complete physical description, the clothing the child was wearing at the time, the place the child was last seen, information about the abduction, and contact information.

The announcement pre-empts any programming that is on the air at the time.

Sanford's WWGP-AM/WFJA-FM was the first radio station in the state to participate in the program.

"A couple of other stations have joined (the program) since we got into it, but it's still a small number," said Richard Feindel, the station's director.

The station was contacted in early 2000 by John Goad, director of North Carolina's Center for Missing Persons, and asked to help start the program.

"We launched the program in Lee, Moore and parts of Chatham and Harnett counties, with WWGP, and now we are incorporated in 14 counties," Goad said.

Alert

The program has gone into action one time — with successful results.

"In June of 2002, an 18-month-old baby was kidnapped in Franklin County by a babysitter," Goad said. "We got the program on the air, and the babysitter's friends were calling her and telling her to turn herself in. So not only did it work like it was supposed to, it was directly responsible for the safe return of the little girl."

Local law enforcement officials approve of the system as well.

"What makes (the NC-CAN program) work so well is the speed at which the media are alerted and work together," said Lee County Sheriff's Chief Deputy Ronnie Currin. "(NC-CAN) is a tool that greatly enhances the workings of law enforcement."

Goad said the program's popularity is growing every day.

"We've got WRAL FM and TV in Raleigh on the program, and lately we've been getting a lot of interest from the east coast of the state," he said. "We've also been getting some calls from the Piedmont area and Charlotte."

Goad said the program is easy to implement and costs stations nothing.

"I can't imagine why a radio or TV station wouldn't want to participate," Goad said. "We've never had a station turn us down when we've asked them to help us with this program."

TO ALL EMPLOYEES,

We sincerely appreciate the outstanding support your staff of WWGP (AM) 1050/WFJA (FM) 105.5 have continually provided the North Carolina National Guard. We are proud of our relationship with the 100 North Carolina counties where we are located in 75 with 94 armories and we've never forgotten that our first mission is to support the local community. Without your generous contribution of our Non-Commercial Sustaining Announcements, we could not adequately man, equip and train the soldiers necessary for our local, state and federal missions.

With your help, we have maintained a force of over 10,300 soldiers throughout North Carolina who serve part-time and are committed full-time to being ready when needed. We have helped thousands of these citizen-soldiers earn a college degree, receive formal training and gain specialized skills. The National Guard is unique among Armed Services, with a dual mission to the state and nation. With lineage dating to 1636, we are proud to be America's oldest Armed Services.

We know how valuable your airtime is and we humbly appreciate the trust you've placed in us. If we can be of service to you now or in the future, please let us know.

Attention: Richard Feindel

Dear Mr. Feindel:

On behalf of the Community Child Protection Team of Lee County, we would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your recent fifty dollar savings bond donation given to Barbara Cameron for our Safe School Project. We, like all other parents, have been concerned for the safety of children while in our schools.

This year we will be sponsoring a project with the theme "Safety in the Schools". The kick off for the project will be during the Lee County Agricultural Fair. We will be asking the students in grades sixth through twelve to create a design suitable for a button that best depicts our theme. We will be using the donations, such as yours, for prizes to the winners of each grade level in each of the schools. We will select one grand prize winner that will be used to make buttons to distribute to the school children.

This project would not have been possible without a partnership with the Lee County Schools and our generous Lee County community leaders. Thank you on behalf of the entire Community Child Protection Team.

Sincerely,

On behalf of the Lee County
Varsity basketball team, we would like to thank all of the fans of this community for your tremendous support
during the basketball season. While we are disappointed that we did not win the state championship, we did not lose sight of how truly blessed we are.
We were undefeated in the 7th level of the 2002
the conference tournament and were Regional champions. We could not have reached these accomplishments without you. We are thankful for the support that we received throughout the season. The community rallied around the team, and your presence in the Dean Dome was awesome and inspiring.
We can't name all of you who helped make this years season the best in school history but we must express special gratitude to the Sixth Men for their faithfulness to Jesus and Lili Handley for hundreds of pre-game drilled cheese sandwiches to the Sanford Herald and for the 1000's of covering our games and to the faculty encouragement.

Although the season
has ended with a loss, we can tip our heads high knowing that we proudly represented our school, Sanford, and Lee County with integrity and excellence. Please pray for our continued success as we strive to always represent the

Dear Margaret

On behalf of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, let us express our sincere thanks for your contribution to the success of our 3rd annual Golf Shoot-out. Your interview and promos of the event helped us to get golfers out during the week and encouraged them to spend more money trying to get into one of the top 30 positions. It may just be part of the station's daily routine to do announcements like this, but it sure helped our tight budget to get this kind of advertising.

Our club supports many activities in Lee County including scholarships, the Boys and Girls Club, the American Red Cross and projects too numerous to name here. Of course, our greatest project in terms of the community is the Kiwanis Park and the Strolling Gardens. Without continued help from people like you with our fund-raisers, these programs would not exist.

Again, we extend our sincere and heartfelt "thank you"

Sincerely,

Lyn Roberts and Susan Larsen

Dear Friends and Sponsors,

After the close of a very successful Fall soccer season, the Board of Directors of the Sanford Area Soccer League thank you for your sponsorship of an advertising sign displayed at the Lions Club Fairgrounds. Without your contribution, it would be extremely difficult to provide the youth of Lee County and the surrounding area with quality coaches, referees, uniforms, and playing facilities.

Once again, we thank you for your sponsorship. We hope that you will continue to support SASL in the upcoming Spring season.

Sincerely,

Tim Connelly

Dear Richard,

Just wanted to thank you for your help and support in the Sanford Center 5 project. I am very pleased with the 450+ crowd. We hope to resume in May, depending on board vote in November.

Thanks again - it would not have been possible without the help and support of people like yourself.
Sincerely,
Joni Martin

Dear Margaret:

The 15th annual Duke Children's Classic was another wonderful success and the success we enjoyed was due in many ways to your special contribution

Your efforts play such a significant and vital role to benefit children's health care at Duke University Medical Center.

You have our sincere appreciation and thanks for your excellent coverage of the Classic and we hope you will continue to be helpful to our cause.

Thanks on behalf of the children treated at Duke.

All the best for a wonderful summer season

Dear Mr. Feindel:

I want to express my appreciation for the cooperation our Branch Office in Southern Pines is receiving relating to the public service time on the air your station is making available.

This service is very important to applicants and employers in the area whereby they are able to obtain information concerning job openings and special programs sponsored by the Employment Security Commission.

The courtesies afforded Mr. Angel Alvarez and Mr. Jay Jones of our Southern Pines staff will be returned with pleasure should you find that our office can be of any service to you. Please do not hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Many thanks for your assistance and the cooperation of the WWGP staff in helping us publicize and celebrate Social Security's 50th birthday. The event was a success, primarily because of efforts such as those made by the WWGP staff.

We continue to receive complimentary comments and questions generated by the public information. The radio work was professionally done and caught the attention of the listeners.

Again, thank you. Looking forward to working with the WWGP staff in the future.

Sincerely,

Donell Lee
